

RUN THE WHOLE SHOP FROM YOUR PHONE. YOU TALK. LIFT WRITES IT UP.

Easy-to-use repair orders, invoices, and customer status checks — ROs, approvals, status replies, invoicing, and getting paid—all from your phone.

01 • REPAIR ORDERS

Say what you found — Lift writes the repair order. Scan the VIN and the vehicle fills itself in.

02 • APPROVALS

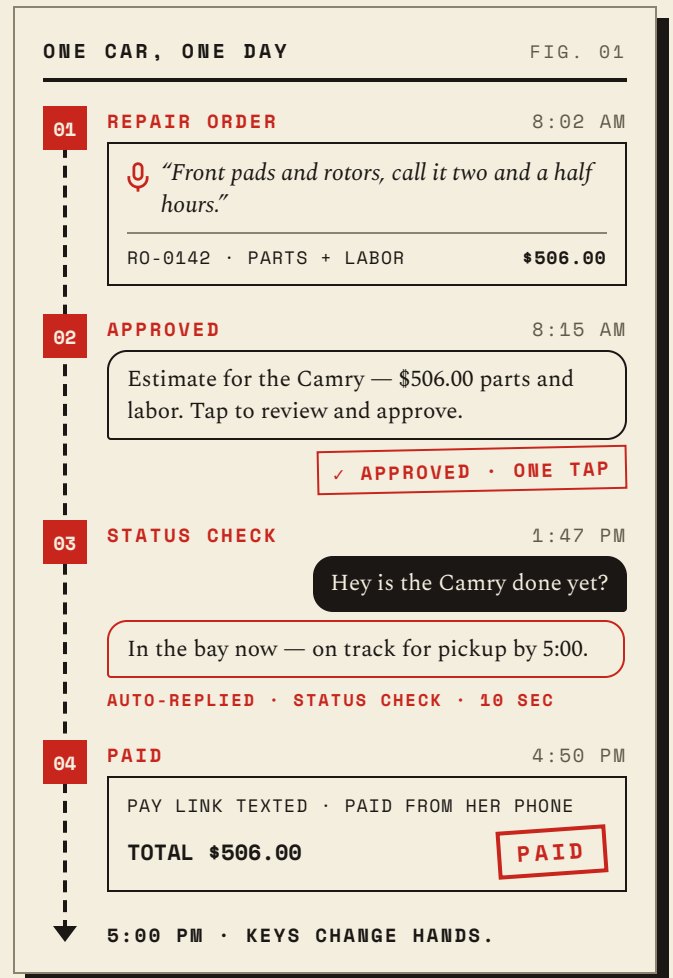

Lift texts the estimate to the customer. They review the work, tap once to approve, and the RO moves itself to “in repair.”

03 • CUSTOMER CHECK-INS

“Is it ready?” texts get answered off the real RO in under 10 seconds — and you approve every word of anything drafted.

04 • GETTING PAID

Estimate to invoice to paid, all by text. From repair order to approval to payment.

02 • ROS AND INVOICES, NOT SCRAP PAPER

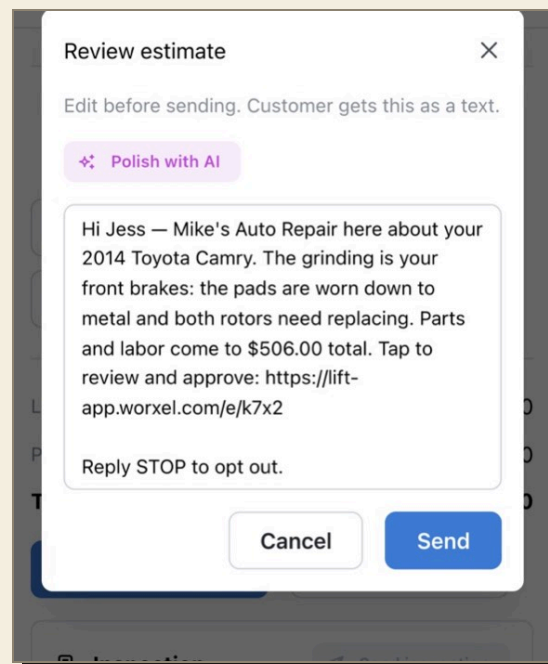

Say what you found out loud, and Lift turns it into line items at your labor rate. Scan the VIN and the vehicle fills itself in; snap photos straight onto the RO. Then Lift drafts the customer text in plain English. You read it, change anything you want, and hit send — nothing goes to a customer you didn't approve. They tap once to approve, and the RO moves itself to “in repair.”

03 • THE TEXTS HANDLE THEMSELVES

A customer texts your shop number: “is my car ready?” Lift reads it, checks the RO, and texts back the real status — in under 10 seconds. You never touched your phone. It only auto-answers status checks; a real question comes straight to you, untouched. Every auto-reply is tagged so you can read exactly what it said, and there's a kill switch if you ever want it off.

04 • PAID BEFORE PICKUP

When she's ready, the customer gets a text with a pay link and pays from their phone before they show up. Keys change hands, done — no wallet fumbling at the counter, no chasing checks. Your whole day lives on one board, on your phone. No back-office computer, no Sunday-night data entry.

YOU APPROVE EVERY WORD BEFORE IT SENDS

BUILT FOR YOU IF: you own a 1–3 bay shop and you're the owner, the tech, AND the guy answering every text.

NOT FOR YOU IF: you've got multiple locations, a service advisor working the front, or a fleet-heavy book. No hard feelings — we'd rather tell you now.

$79/MO.
THAT'S IT.

“I built Lift, and I'm probably the guy who handed you this. I'm not a call center — if something's broken or confusing, text or email me and you'll get me, not a ticket number.”
